

The Kaduna State Newborn Screening Program: Communicating Results to Families

Agenda

1. Welcome and opening remarks
2. Introduction of speaker
3. Lecture
4. Q&A session
5. Feedback for improvement
6. Closing remarks

Housekeeping info

- Please note that the session will be recorded
- Keep you mic/camera off if you are not speaking
- All material and a certificate of attendance will be made available after the meeting
- Type your full name while entering the meeting
- You will be asked to complete a feedback questionnaire
- If your connection drops down, you can reconnect using the same link

Dr Ifeoma P. Ijei-Enesi (MBBS, FMCPath) is a senior lecturer & consultant haematologist at Barau Dikko Teaching Hospital/ Kaduna State University, Kaduna, Nigeria with clinical, research and administrative responsibilities in haemoglobinopathies, transfusion medicine, laboratory quality management systems & health service delivery improvement.

She is a Marie Curie-Sklodowska Fellow, clinical laboratory lead on the EU-funded African Research and Innovative Initiative for Sickle cell Education (ARISE) project in Kaduna. She currently serves as Deputy Dean, Faculty of Basic Clinical Sciences, KASU, Chairperson, SERVICOM BDTH and as principal and sub-investigator on several clinical trials.

